Why this program

Student behaviour is one of the biggest daily pressures on teaching quality, lesson flow, teacher confidence, and staff retention. This program gives teachers more than isolated behaviour tips: it combines routines, calm authority, explicit expectations, responsive correction, student self-regulation, and teacher wellbeing into one coherent day of practical professional learning.

Why it stands out	Benefits for schools
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Links behaviour management directly to instructional excellence. Blends proactive routines, calm correction, student regulation, and recovery. Supports prevention, response, and re-engagement - not just behaviour control. Includes a dedicated final session on teacher wellbeing. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports stronger teacher confidence and retention. Improves consistency of expectations across classrooms. Protects learning time and strengthens student engagement. Provides practical support for graduates, PTTs, and experienced teachers. Aligns behaviour, wellbeing, and high-impact teaching.
